

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

AGENCY ONE INSURANCE, INC.,
PAMELA A SIROKY, METROPOLITAN
PROPERTY AND CASUALTY
INSURANCE COMPANY, Assignee of the Claims of Agency One Insurance, Inc. and Pamela A. Siroky;

Plaintiffs,

vs.

WESTPORT INSURANCE CORP.,

Defendant.

8:13CV78

ORDER

As to Defendant Westport Insurance Corp.'s motion to compel, (Filing No. 136):

1) The court has reviewed the document withheld by MetLife (MET000031) and at this time, finds the document is an attorney-client communication for which the privilege has not been waived.

2) At the court's request, David Dudley submitted to the court the documents withheld as identified on his privilege log and finds:

a. After reviewing the documents the defendant intends to use during depositions of Mr. Phillips and Mr. Dudley,<sup>1</sup> and comparing them to the documents withheld by Mr. Dudley, it is clear that the defendant has already received nearly all the documents from another source.

- b. Of those documents which the defendant has not yet received, the attached pages are attorney-client communications, but do not provide legal advice and do not include work product.<sup>2</sup>
- c. The document identified as email correspondence between Randall Goyette and David Dudley dated May 7, 2014 is wholly irrelevant to the claims in this case.
- d. The document, identical to MET000031, is an attorney-client communication for which the privilege has not been waived.

April 14, 2015.

BY THE COURT:

s/ Cheryl R. Zwart
United States Magistrate Judge

---

<sup>2</sup> Note: The court has redacted the portion of these documents identifying Mr. Dudley's communications with his staff regarding whether the document should be listed on the privilege log.

John Gray just gave me the good news that he and David have worked out the details to resolve the Sioux City case. Obviously, there will not be a trial at the end of the month. I will wait until John and David get the paperwork done and signed and then John and I will get the case here dismissed and we will be done. Have a great weekend!

Here you go. It will probably be best to just schedule a time to meet. We are crazy busy here and if mother nature keeps throwing tantrum's it is not going to get any better. Later in the day seems to work best for me and Mondays and Wednesdays are out because of kids ball games. If you guys want to throw out some dates and times I will just make it work. I will wait to hear back from one of you. Thank you!! Have a good evening!!!

Attached to this email is the agreement signed by Chuck. Go ahead and print the attachment and then sign where indicated.

I have talked to Chris Miller a couple of times today. He is making arrangements to review documents. He's already reviewed most of the depositions. During my conversation, he indicated that in the fairly near future, he would like to sit down and meet you. I suggested that at some point, we could initially meet together and I could introduce you. If you're going to be in Lincoln in the next several days, maybe there would be an opportunity to conference. Let me know if you have questions or concerns.
